

Article Detail

Title: PBL2002: Introductory Workshop Track Sponsored by ITUE

Author: George Watson
College of Arts & Science
University of Delaware
Newark, DE 19716
ghw@udel.edu

Co-Authors: Deborah Allen
Barbara Duch
Susan Groh
Valerie Hans
Harold White

Discipline: Problem-Based Learning

Keywords: PBL2002, PBL, PBL workshop, groups, introduction to PBL, problem-based learning

Abstract: A series of 'how to do it' workshops was offered throughout the PBL2002 conference for participants who were interested in learning how to implement PBL in their courses. These workshops were sponsored by the Institute for Transforming Undergraduate Education.

Workshop topics included:

- Experience It Yourself: A Model for PBL for All Classes
- Group Dynamics 101: How Groups Work Effectively
- Integrating Technology with PBL
- Writing Effective Problem-Based Materials
- The First Week of Class
- Assessment of Learning in Student-Centered Courses
- Peer Facilitators in PBL Courses
- Models for PBL in Small, Medium, and Large Classes

Date Submitted: 6/24/2002

Date Published: 6/24/2002

Article content: Article Content
ITUE Workshop Leaders

© Institute for Transforming Undergraduate Education, Univ. of Delaware, 2002.

Problem-Based Learning Clearinghouse

Add to my favoritesProvide feedbackRead user feedback

